Citizens for Brentwood Greenspace Adds McClendon To Board of Directors

BRENTWOOD, TN – August 18, 2011 – The Citizens for Brentwood Green Space (CBGS), a volunteer citizens group dedicated to preserving open space in Brentwood, announced today the addition of Devin McClendon to its Board of Directors.

McClendon has been very active in the community over the years through civic groups like Leadership Brentwood, Brentwood Noon Rotary, Brentwood Cool Springs Chamber of Commerce and the MTSU National Alumni Association. McClendon, along with his wife Laura and two children, also attends Brentwood United Methodist Church.

"As a lifelong resident of Brentwood, Devin brings a unique perspective on our city and passion for preserving the quality of life we enjoy here today. We're honored to have him join our Board," said President Gil Hutchinson.

McClendon's focus is commercial real estate, having been involved with numerous successful projects and clients in the Middle Tennessee area over the years. He is a broker with Claybaker Properties, LLC of Brentwood.

About Citizens for Brentwood Green Space

The Citizens for Brentwood Green Space, Inc. is a volunteer citizens group organized as a 501(c) (3) nonprofit corporation. Our mission is to preserve open space in the form of parks, trails, historic sites, and flood plains while being sensitive to the rights of landowners and developers. We desire to assure that ongoing development of land resources is accomplished in a way that is beneficial to landowners, to existing citizens of the city and to future generations of Brentwood residents.
